Chuck O’Rourke is the Natural Resource Conservation Service District Conservationist for Orange and Osceola Counties. He is responsible for administering farm bill conservation practices in the field.

Ken Windsor is the County Executive Director of USDA’s Osceola-Brevard Farm Service Agency in Kissimmee and the Lake-Orange Farm Service Agency in Tavares, and previously served as the County Executive Director of the Volusia-Seminole Farm Service Agency in Deland. Ken has been with the agency for 28 years and in Central Florida for the last 11 after relocating from the Florida Panhandle. He is married to his best friend and sweetheart, Jacquelin, of 32 years, has three grown children and two beautiful granddaughters.

Erin Vermillion is currently the Farm Loan Manager that oversees the USDA’s Farm Loan Programs in ten Central Florida counties. She has been with the Agency for 11 years. Prior to that she studied at the University of Florida, where she earned a BS in Animal Science, and North Carolina State University, where she earned a Master of Extension Education.